

Jemison Public Library
November Programs 2022

Story Hour      Wednesdays from 10-11am at Jemison City Hall
Craft and snack provided.

Story Hour meets in the Court Room of the Municipal Complex.

Look for the Angel Tree coming to the Library mid November.
This is an opportunity to help support our local children for Christmas

Macramé Christmas Ornament with Denise - Nov. 8, 6-8pm

Easy beaded Macramé Christmas Tree Ornament. (Picture on FaceBook)
All supplies provided – 12 seats available. Call to reserve your spot!

ABC's of Medicare with John Littlefield Nov. 17 10-12pm

Mr. John will be helping us learn the ABC's of Medicare to help you make sense of Parts A, B, C, and D! Come with your questions, valuable information for seniors to help you make educated decisions regarding your healthcare.

In honor of American Indian Heritage Month

Special speaker, Mr. Rick Cofer      Nov. 17 6-8 pm.

The Indians of Alabama and Our Native American Heritage.

Rick will be showing items that our earliest indigenous people used to make a living. Call for more information!

Art In The Garden Arts and Craft Show Nov 20. 2-4pm

Join us as we display artwork and crafts in the Library Garden from the various Programs we present monthly. Meet the Artist featured in the 2022 Edition of Faces and Places, Mrs. Beatriz Raqazzoni's artwork will also be on display. Mayor and City Council will be in attendance. Public is invited. Light hor'd oeuvres provided.

(In case of inclement weather, we'll move to Municipal Complex)

Library Phone 205 576-6760